Quakers Lose to Linfield by a Small Score

PACIFIC TAKES SHUTOUT GAME FROM NORMAL 16 TO 0

President Pennington Opens Season
by Pitching First Ball

The first baseball game of the season was played on Friday, April 21, with the Monmouth Normal team on the P. C. diamond and was won by Pacific to the tune of 16 to 0.

President Pennington officially opened the season by pitching three balls over the plate with Clara Calkins, student body president, batting, and Prof. Macy as umpire.

The game was too one sided to be interesting and was played with poor form, especially on the part of the visitors. They made ten costly errors and obtained but three hits. Only one of their players succeeded in reaching third base and this was done in the first inning. The Normal used two pitchers, both of whom pitched good ball considering that it was the first game which either had ever pitched, but the local boys hit them freely. The battery for the Normal was: Pitchers, Kaup and Van Loan, and catcher, Simons.

Pil and H. Terrell worked for Pacific. Pil struck out fifteen men but walked eight. P. C. made but two errors and obtained eight hits, one of which was converted into a home run through poor fielding. The locals made two runs in the second inning, three in the third, five in the fourth, two in the sixth, one in the seventh and three in the eighth.

The visitors showed good sportsmanship throughout the entire game and put up a hard fight until the last inning, even though they were at great odds in respect to the score.

AGORETONS GIVE PROGRAM FOR TREFIAN LADIES

One of the high lights of P. C.'s society life was the entertainment of the Trefians by the Agoretions on April 28 at 8:00 p. m. in Wood-Mar Hall. A very unique program was given in the chapel, the first number of which was a pantomime directed by C. R. Hinshaw, featuring negro home life. Its presentation revealed much hidden talent among the young men. The second number, a violin solo, was executed by Royal Gettman, with much feeling. This was followed by a stunt presented by Virgil Hinshaw as Dr. Grandgetam and his aide, Cecil Pearson, who performed some exceedingly modern feats in surgery on an unrecognizable subject. After the audience had recovered, Howard Notteage played a clarinet solo. Following a short social time in the lower hall, refreshments consisting of ice cream and onions were served.

GIRLS' ATHLETIC COUNCIL ELECTS NEW OFFICERS

The student council for the girls' athletic association met Friday, April 28, to elect officers. Helen Hester was unanimously elected president and Mary Shirley, secretary. The members of the council representing the following classes are:

Academy, Elizabeth Silver.
Academy, Louise Nelson.
Freshman, Mary Shirley.
Sophomore, Helen Hester.
Junior, Clara Calkins.
Senior, Anna Mills.

MAY DAY FESTIVAL PLANS ARE PROGRESSING NICELY

The biennial May Day festival will be celebrated with more than usual splendor on Saturday, May 6. The student body has purchased new costumes for the queen, the cardinal, the heralds and the guards. The queen's maids are planning dainty and harmonious frocks and the costumes for the drills will be as quaint, pretty and picturesque as the occasion requires.

Besides the traditional winding of the Maypole, there will be performed a weaver's drill, a colonial drill, a Japanese drill, a Dutch drill, a clown frolic and a butterfly drill.

The college and academy classes, the commercial department, and the faculty are contestants for the graceful loving cup now on display in the library, which is awarded each May Day for the best float. The faculty won it in 1920 and theirs is the first name it bears. It is an honor which classes will spend much effort in trying to attain.

The business houses and various city organizations have been asked to enter floats, and the committee is sure, at least, of a good one from the fremen.

Tennis and baseball with Linfield are scheduled for the afternoon. The May Day contests have always

ACADEMY STUDENT BODY ELECTS NEW EXECUTIVES

The annual elections of the Academy student body took place last Tuesday, April 25, in the Academy study hall. The following are the officers who will serve for the coming term:

President—Ivor Jones.
Vice-president—Ben Huntington.
Secretary—Emmabell Woodworth.
Treasurer—Hazel Newhouse.
Chairman social committee—Arda Campbell.
Yell leader—Floyd Lienard.

CECIL PEARSON'S ORATION WINS IN LOCAL CONTEST

Cecil Pearson was the winner of the local Peace contest held on Tuesday evening, April 25. He will represent Pacific College at the State Peace contest to be held on May 12 at Wood-Mar Hall. Through the kindness of some eastern Friends a reward of $25 has been offered to the winner of the local contest at Pacific, and a first prize of $75, and a second prize of $50 to the ones who are successful in the State contest. The winning orator in the May contest will compete in the National contest in which an additional prize of $25 is offered by the New England Quaker women, who have taken this means of arousing interest in the cause of peace.

In Mr. Pearson's oration, "The Way to Peace," he vividly pictured the conditions in stricken Europe. The orator has been engaged in Friends Relief Work, and because of this fact he was able to make very proved very interesting and much enthusiasm has already developed.

The celebration of the day will be ended by an entertainment to be given by the Academy students in the evening.

LINFIELD PLAYERS WIN GAME BY ONE POINT

Both Pitchers Are Heavily Hit
Throughout the Game

The Pacific College baseball nine lost a very close and exciting slugging contest to Linfield College on the Linfield diamond, Friday, April 28, the final score being 11 to 10. The most interesting features of the game were the heavy hitting of both teams, and the ninth inning rally of the Quakers, staged after two men had been put out and two strikes had been called on the third man.

The first blood was drawn in the second inning, when P. C. scored two runs on as many hits. This lead did not last long, however, as Kratt, the first Linfield man up in the third, slammed the ball far over left field for a home run. This was foollowed by a hit batsman, two hits and an error, which added three more runs, and by a couple of counters in the fourth on two hits and an error. With the score standing 6 to 2 against them, Pacific's hitters entered the sixth inning and came up with three tallies on four safe drives and went around for one more in the seventh, tieing the score. This was short lived, however, as the Baptists put across three in their half of the seventh on two hits, two errors and a walk. Again in the eighth two singles and a double netted them another pair.

P. C. chalked up one in the eighth on a hit and two errors and, with the score standing 11 to 7, the signal was given for a ninth inning rally. The first man up struck out. The next two reached first on errors. The fourth batter flied out. Pil, the fifth man to bat, missed the first two and, with the ball game hanging on the next ball, he lined out a long double which drove in two runs. The score was 9 to 11. Pil stole third and crossed the plate on Elliot's single. Score, 10 to 11. Elliot pulled some slick base running and stole second and third. The rally was at its height. The tieing run was on third base. The Linfield players were determined. But the seventh batsman struck out and the game was over.

Linfield obtained one home run, one three bagger, two two baggers and eight singles. Pacific knocked out three two baggers and eight singles. Pil struck out ten men, while the two opposing moundsmen struck out nine. Each team had five errors marked against it and Pil walked three men in comparison to one by his opponents. There was some very good fielding done by both teams. The P. C. players stole eleven bases

THE EXTEMP. CONTEST

Winning the annual Old Pulpit Extemporaneous speaking contest is one way to win permanent fame at Pacific College. The winner's name is engraved on a copper plate affixed to the front of the first pulpit used in Newberg. The pulpit is the property of the College, and the contest one of those customs which is peculiar to the College.

The contest is open to all college students, and because it is very much worth while, and because it takes so very little time for preparation, it should be a very popular form of competitive public speaking.

A subject is announced two periods before the preliminary speaking begins. Contestants then make speeches two or three minutes long before faculty judges or before judges and a college audience. Five contestants are then chosen to make five-minute speeches on various subjects in the final contest. This contest is held at the usual chapel hour before the usual chapel audience.

Those who tried out last year and those who acted as judges found it embarrassing to have the preliminary held in so small a room in so private a manner. The try out can very well be held after school in the chapel or assembly hall. Such a procedure gives the contestants better practice and gives the contest more publicity.

Since there is no extemporaneous speaking class this semester, all are equally under obligation and equally free to enter the contest. It is a good place for senior and freshman, for the bashful, and the bold; a good time to break into the limelight, and a good time to have one last try for fame. The only college student who is ineligible is Cecil Pearson, who won the contest last year. Let us then be ready for the early announcement of the preliminaries.

AN ALUMNI COLUMN

Why is a college paper? In a small school like Pacific what are its chief reasons for existence? One answer is that it helps to develop school spirit and that is well as far as it goes. But that in itself is certainly not enough, for if the paper is circulated only among the students why couldn't the same thing be accomplished by posting the news and gossip on a bulletin board in the hall where everyone could read and laugh.

If a college paper doesn't get outside the school in which it is published it is failing to accomplish one of the main things for which it should exist. It ought to be an advertising agency through which the attention of prospective students would be favorably directed toward the college, and it could perform an invaluable service by keeping the friends and patrons of the institution informed as to its activities and its condition morally and spiritually. Many erroneous ideas about Pacific have grown up amongst those who might be friends simply because they have no way of knowing the facts.

The very limited circulation of the Crescent prevents it from performing any of these services and the main purpose of this article is to propose an initial step in a movement for an increased circulation of our college publication. That step is to get the members of the alumni interested by devoting a section of the paper to the publishing of alumni news. Student bodies change so rapidly that the names appearing in the paper soon become strange to the graduate, and his interest wanes and eventually he is lost to the school and the school to him. A real live department through which old schoolmates could keep in touch with one another would help to overcome this undesirable situation and the graduate would not so soon forget his Alma Mater.

A deeply interested student, or perhaps an alumnus living in town, with a liberal supply of perseverance could do wonders with such a department. Time would be required to work out an efficient news bureau but other colleges have tried the plan with gratifying results. Is it not time that the Crescent was launching out to bigger things? Why not?

ADVISORY BOARD LEADS Y. W.

The Y. W. C. A. meeting last Wednesday was led by the new advisory board. Miss Eunice Lewis, as chairman of the board, introduced the new members, Mrs. U. S. G. Miller and Mrs. Levi T. Pennington. Mrs. Miller responded with a few words and gave the scripture reading. As a surprise, Mrs. Mabel Frost, accompanied by Delight Carter, sang a pleasing song. Mrs. Pennington addressed the girls in her usual delightful manner. She gave a description of a desert as she had seen it, with all its possibilities as well as its dryness and barrenness. She then pictured an oasis, to be found in that desert, with its green grass, its flowers, its trees, and shrubs, and other living things, all made possible by the presence of water. She showed that there are desert places everywhere with their great possibilities, which need only the presence of water, in other words the Gospel, to make them beautiful and fruitful.

Two weeks ago each member of Y. W. had to do her share in the meeting by filling out a questionnaire for the use of the cabinet in planning the rest of the meetings for the year. Some of the questions were rather difficult, others rather personal, and some seemed absolutely unanswerable, but the girls heroically made an attempt and were ready to hand in before the end of the meeting. A representative from each department of Pacific then told what the Y. W. of Pacific College had meant to her and the statements made, greatly encouraged the cabinet. The representatives were: from the Academy, Retha Tucker, from the Commercial Department, Florence Nye, from the college, Mary Shirley, and from the Faculty, Miss Clark.

The high school freshmen won a game from the Academy baseball team last Friday.

ALBANY STARTS BALL SEASON WITH TWO VICTORIES

Albany College is starting baseball with a rush. On Saturday, April 22, the Albany nine defeated Linfield at Albany by the score of 12 to 4, and a few days later they took Willamette into camp with a 9 to 5 victory. P. C. will play Albany some time in May, and it looks as if she will have a hard tussle with the southerners.

The Academy "Giants" took a baseball game from the Academy "Tigers" Thursday evening, April 27, with a final score of 16 to 14. The battery for the Tigers was Hollingsworth, Haworth and Huntington. That of the Giants was Shaw, Crozer and Benoist.

N. H. S. won a baseball game from Amity, April 28, by a big score. They lost the Carlton game, April 21, because of errors due probably to weather conditions, which made consistent practice impossible.

AMONG OURSELVES

Hubert Armstrong, Walter Cook, Cecil R. Hinshaw, Cecil F. Hinshaw, and Professor Macy attended the Y. M. C. A. cabinet conference at Corvallis, April 22-23. The meetings were held in the Agricultural College Y. M. hut, and were attended by delegates from most of the colleges in Oregon, there being about thirty-five men present.

Howard Nottage held up the reputation of the masculine portion of the psychology class last Friday, while the rest of the boys were at Linfield.

Royal Getman, Wilfred Crozer, Frederic Hinshaw and Herman Elliott witnessed the opening game of Portland's baseball season at the Vaughn street park Tuesday, April 18th.

Wendal Woodward sustained a painfully injured eye when he was hit by an unexpected "hot one" during batting practice on the baseball diamond last Monday.

Bob Shinn has succeeded in learning one chord on his banjo ukulele. Maybe he'll learn another some day if he can find a teacher.

Roy Johnston and Ben Huntington ton brought home a fair sized catch of croppies from Skookum lake last Saturday.

The new museum room in the basement has been fitted out with display cases and is now practically completed.

Gerald Pearson and Ben Huntington scraped the girls' tennis court and put up a new backstop, Saturday, April 22.

Pacific University lost a baseball game to North Pacific Dental College on April 22, the score being 5 to 4.

The typewriting students took the monthly Remington speed tests Thursday, April 27.

Martha Ehret is now doing stenographic work for Mr. C. A. Butt.

Mrs. Ware is again taking work in the Commercial department.

Miss Clarke and Miss Johnson were shopping in Portland last Saturday.

Royal Getman was elected assistant editor of the Crescent at the student body meeting April 28. He will fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Mary Shirley.

Earlham won second place in the Indiana Peace contest held April 21. Six colleges were represented in the contest.

Pacific won the Newberg fire department ball game 9 to 3. The N. F. D. lineup was as follows: C. Smith, p; Rice, c; Swart, 1b; Hutchens, 2b; Livengood, ss; Kramien, 3b; Sherlock, lf; Van Blaricom, cf; Miller, rf.

DR. LEE SPEAKS AT Y. M.

The first meeting held under the administration of the new Y. M. cabinet, April 19, was led by Rev. Lee of the Presbyterian church. "All" was the word which he chose as a subject for his talk. The Bible, he said, must be accepted as a whole or not at all. He showed the harm which a partial acceptance of the Bible brings into one's life.

The meeting of the Y. M. for April 26, took the form of a song and testimony service with the entire association taking part.

GIRLS' ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION ELECTIONS TAKE PLACE

April 17 marked the close of one of the most successful administrations of the Girls' Athletic association, and the opening of the 1922-23 association year.

The former officers and their successors are:

President, Daisee Leffler—Mary Elliott.

Vice-president, Mary Elliott—Florence Lee.

Secretary, Esther Haworth—Ruth Whitlock.

Treasurer, Helen Hester—Ann Silver.

Tennis manager, Beth Paulsen—Pauline Terrell.

Special appreciation is due the old officers for the constructive work which they have effected. It has been and will continue to be of especial value to the cause of athletics among the girls of Pacific College. Particular mention should be made of the Athletic Council which was organized, and which consists of one advisory member from the faculty, and two members from the senior, junior, sophomore, and freshmen classes and the Academy. This body is directly responsible for the promotion of girls' athletics, and simplifies the work of the large association by conducting much of its work and discussion.

The Girls' Hiking club is also a new department of the Association. The interest in it and its value to those participating indicate that it is permanently established.

Greater general interest in the association and girls' athletics during the past year indicates an important increase in the association.

TENNIS PROSPECTS GOOD

The recent good weather has brought out many tennis aspirants and the prospects look very good for a winning team for Pacific this year. Although neither the men's nor ladies' tournaments have been completed, the indications point toward Walter Cook and Alfred Terrell for the men and Anna Mills and Ardath Campbell for the ladies as Pacific's representatives.

Tournaments are arranged with Linfield there on May 5 and here on May 6. Although Albany has sent in a request for a couple of matches, it will not be possible to play them because of lack of funds and of open dates.

Pacific should be a strong contender for the cup which will be awarded the winner of the elimination tournament of independent colleges to be held at Salem, May 27, on the Willamette courts.

All students are divided into two groups, the wise and otherwise.

STUDENTS WORK ON CAMPUS

Academy students, college students, commercial students and the faculty all abandoned their studies Monday, May 1, and devoted their time to the annual campus day activities, which are always looked forward to with much anticipation. The matter was brought before the student body the preceding Friday, and the following committee chairmen were appointed: Campus, Professor Perisho; Herman Elliott; trees, shrubs, etc., President Pennington, Locke Silva; buildings, Mrs. Hodgin, Hubert Armstrong; canyon, Professor Weesner, Cecil Pearson; general clean-up, Professor Macy, Ellis Beals; luncheon, Miss Sutton, Anna Mills; May Day preparations, Miss Lewis, Beth Paulsen; Commander-in-Chief, Clara V. Calkins.

The morning was devoted to work and the afternoon to a ball game with the fire department and to May Day preparations. The appearance of the campus has been considerably improved. The campus committee leveled the driveway, worked on the tennis courts and re-scraped the ball diamond; the trees and shrubs committee pruned trees and cultivated flower beds; the buildings committee washed windows; the canyon committee made paths and footbridges; and the clean-up committee raked up the leaves and trash and generally improved the campus. The luncheon committee served punch and oranges at noon.

The day was very successful, from a standpoint both of enjoyment and work accomplished.

LETTER CLUB MEMBERS NOW WEARING NEW PINS

The members of the Gold Letter club are now wearing small gold "P's" in conspicuous places on their coat lapels and neckties. These pins have been chosen by the club as official membership insignia, and it is alumni member shall obtain one if he desires. They are very attractive little pins about one-fourth of an inch in height, with shiny surface and dull edges of 14 karat gold.

LINFIELD WINS BALL GAME

and had but five men left on the bags.

This was Pacific's first big game of the season and, although she lost, there is no reason for being pessimistic. Pil did not pitch his usual brand of ball, and W. Woodward, who is usually a heavy hitter, was playing with one eye bandaged as the result of being hit by a batted ball last week. However, the team should be in mid-season shape when Linfield plays a return game here May 6.

PEACE CONTEST HERE BY INVITATION MAY 12

Cecil E. Pearson Will Speak for Pacific Against P. U., E. B. U.,
O. A. C. and Reed

A state Peace contest by invitation of Pacific College will be participated in by Oregon Agricultural College, Pacific University, Eugene Bible University, Pacific College and probably Reed College on the evening of Friday, May 12, at Wood-Mar Hall.
Cecil E. Pearson, winner of the local Peace contest will represent Pacific College. Mr. Pearson is a senior and has been prominent in college affairs for some time. He has won the college extemporaneous speaking contest and has shown up well in several local oratorical contests.

The management of the contest is under the direction of Clara V. Calkins. The chairmen of committees are: Mary K. Elliott, entertainment; Alfred Terrell, finance; Eva Miles, music; and Mary A. Shirley, decorations.

The orators and one delegate from each college will be entertained in homes in the college community.
Other guests may well be expected, judging from the attendance at the state oratorical contest held here on March 10.

The admission charge of 25 cents is expected to materially enrich the student body, while the community can look forward to an evening of profitable entertainment. The orations, like those in the earlier contest will each occupy about fifteen minutes of time. The music on the program will be furnished by popular musicians of the town and college.

graphic his picture of the scenes across the water. The oration was a plea to the people of America to abolish suspicion, revenge, hatred and greed, and replace them with sympathy, confidence and goodwill, and thus prevent a recurrence of the strife that brings with it such disastrous results. Through the churches, schools, and press, America can be "enlightened and guided to the Man of Nazareth."

Cecil Pearson's oration was followed by "Military Training or No," by Zenas E. Perisho. Compulsory military training would make of America's young men not soldiers but militarists. It would create in other nations a feeling of mistrust toward the Stars and Stripes. Flora E. Campbell's "New Challenge of Patriotism" to the students of America gave the alternatives that the college men and women are facing since the war. They may either stumble blindly on searching for a substitute for war, or they may unite in their determination to create a warless world. The question that American students must answer is not "Have you the courage to die for your country?" but, "Have you the courage to live a life for your country?"

Flora (in Shakespeare class)—
"Portia was a beautiful and attractive young lady."

Pres. Pennington—"What is beauty?"

Flora—"Search me!"
